

RowLA's Girls Summer Mini-Camps 2013

Try something cool and make new friends this summer!

What is this?

'Learn to Row' mini camps provide you with an opportunity for hands-on experience in discovering the ultimate team sport of rowing.

- You will see and learn about various types of boats.
- Learn to 'erg' (simulation of rowing) on rowing machines.
- Get into a boat to experience being on the water!
- Learn about sweep rowing and sculling.
- Find out how rowing can help you get into college with a scholarship!

Where are they happening?

Marina del Rey – more information will be provided when you sign up!

When are they?

Camp Session One:

June 25 - 27 from 9am - 12:30pm

Camp Session Two:

August 6 - 8 from 9am - 12:30pm

How do I sign up?

Mini Camps are free to high school girls, but you must reserve a spot! Space is limited!

Call: RowLA's Liz Greenberger at 310.650.6290

Email: erin.girlsrowla@gmail.com

GirlsRowLA

girlsrowla

Special Opportunity for Girls in Grades 8, 9, and 10!